

Instructor Biographies

Lindsey Marshall is a mom who works as a hospital pharmacist. She grew up in a small town in Oklahoma, loves her OU Sooners, and moved to Texas in 2007. Her love for science in school, specifically how incredible and complex the human body is, gave her the desire to share knowledge with students, to empower them to make better decisions, not only with their bodies, but their minds and hearts, as well.

John Bessolo is a father to 3 daughters and 4 grandchildren. He has served in many roles as a member of First United Methodist in Weatherford for 22 years including serving with the children's and youth ministries. He retired from Lockheed Martin where he worked as an engineer for 36 years. He currently consults part-time with several aerospace companies. John started serving with Grace House in 2022.

Misty Browning is married to Andy Browning and has three children: William, Jacob, and Sophia. They are very active in their church at Northside Baptist Church. Misty graduated from Tarleton State University with a BS. Degree in Communications and a Master of Art's. She left her career in journalism when COVID hit and now works for the Parker County Attorney's Office. Misty feels called to volunteer her time with Grace House and the Pure Truth program in the hope that the local students she can speak to will not walk down the road she found herself on years ago.

Hanna Seibert holds a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice but all her work experience has been in the interest of protecting and bettering youth lives, including social services, mental health, legal work, and education. She strongly believes in educating our youth as a way to empower them onto a path to make better choices throughout their life. Hanna and her husband Tim have two dogs and enjoy spending time outdoors and finding new places to explore. Tim and Hanna are partners at Hulen Street Church in Fort Worth.

Pete Simpson has been married to his wife Tamara since 1979. In addition to adopting Tamara's two children, they went on to adopt and raise two more children. Pete graduated from DeVry Institute of Technology and retired in March of 2021 after working in the power generation industry for over 40 years. Pete spends his time volunteering with Grace House, The Center of Hope and Lakeshore Baptist Church where he currently serves as Interim Youth Pastor.

Jimmy Campbell retired in 2015 from a federal law enforcement position as the Chief, Security and Background Investigation Section, after a 25-year career with the Federal Bureau of Prisons in which he also served in positions such as Human Resource Administrator, Employee Development Manager, and Hostage Negotiation Team Leader (and trainer). Afterward, he and his wife owned and operated the Covered Bridge Inn, a retreat venue in Parker County for 6 1/2 years. They currently own InFOCUS Communication Training and provide professional and personal communication training to businesses throughout the DFW metro-plex. Additionally, Jimmy currently serves as the Careers Now Coordinator for the Parker County Center of Hope in Weatherford and attends Granbury Baptist Church.

Jill Keaton has been married to Dave for 8 years. She has one son (25) and a dog named Nutmeg and a cat named Izzy. She has lived in Texas for eight years and attends Solid Rock Church in Ft. Worth. Her hobbies include card making, reading, and all things coffee. Jill volunteers her time because she wants to provide instruction on subjects she did not have as a teen and make a difference in the lives of students.

Sandra Campbell began serving Grace House as a volunteer in February 2021 and joined our staff as Pure Truth Coordinator in December of the same year. Her experience in life coaching, women's ministry, business ownership, and working in the Psychology Clinic at Texas Tech University has taught her to work with individuals with a variety of backgrounds. Sandra has a passion to equip students with the knowledge and tools necessary to make healthy lifestyle decisions now and carry them into adulthood. She and her husband Jimmy attend Granbury Baptist Church.
